Early Beginnings:

Griffin's fascination with escapology was sparked at a young age. His natural talent and dedication led him to spend countless hours perfecting the art of escape. As a child, Michael would eagerly ask his father, a world-respected psychiatrist, to tie him up using various rope ties and psychiatric restraints.

These early experiences fueled his passion for escapology, as he spent hours mastering the skill of escaping over and over again.

Remarkable Achievements:

- World Magic Awards: Michael Griffin is the only two-time winner of the World Magic Awards for Best Escape Artist, highlighting his exceptional talent and creativity.
- Television Appearances: Griffin has been featured on America's Got Talent and multiple episodes of Masters of Illusion, captivating audiences with his skill and showmanship.
- Silver Handcuffs Award: As the first recipient of the Silver Handcuffs Award, Griffin's significant contributions to escapology have been recognized and celebrated.

Death-Defying Feats:

Michael Griffin is known as the only person to have survived a public hanging, showcasing his unparalleled skill in high-risk situations.

Demonstrating his extraordinary abilities, Griffin helped capture a murderer while being tied up.

In a heroic act, he saved 1,200 people from a burning building during a performance, all while being bound.

Unique Challenges and Honors:

$100,000 Challenge: Griffin's confidence in his skills is evident through his reward to anyone who can successfully keep him prisoner.

Houdini's Box: Griffin was granted the use of Harry Houdini's own box for an underwater escape, a significant honor and testament to his skill and homage to the legendary escapologist.

2:45 - 4:00 pm Ballroom

As West Virginia credit unions celebrate 100 years of impact, this interactive session invites credit union leaders to step into the role of storyteller, steward and advocate. Participants will have the opportunity to share their experiences, gather insights from peers across the state, and reflect on the responsibility and opportunity we share for carrying the movement forward. Working together, participants will explore how to clearly tell the credit union story, why it matters to the public, and how each of us can help shape the next 100 years of the cooperative movement in West Virginia.

The Bennett Hall Band

Three sisters, Kat, Presley and Josie Hope Hall. The band is named after their brother, Bennett, who passed away in 2010. At the age of six, Kat (17) chose to take a voice class over a dance class. At fifteen months younger, Presley Rose (16) followed in her sister's footsteps. Harmonies quickly followed and the pair were singing live duets at ages seven and eight. That began the musical journey of what would eventually be The Bennett Hall Band. At age nine, Kat picked up the guitar so she could begin songwriting and accompanying herself. Four months after her first lesson, she played it on stage for a live audience.

The trio has been playing all over middle Tennessee and beyond on stages such as The Station Inn, CMA Fest, El Dorado Festival, Tom Petty Weekend, and Dierks Bentley's Whiskey Room.
